All Members Called to Lodge Leadership Development Weekend!

December 2, 3 & 4, 2022

Pennacook Lodge will host its Annual Lodge Leadership Development (LLD) Weekend on Dec 2 - 4 at New England Base Camp, Milton, MA. All members are welcome, encouraged and needed to help prepare the Lodge for a busy 2023 in service to Scouting and our Community.

The LLD Weekend will consist of important trainings and brainstorming sessions, great fun and fellowship activities, some special features, and a Brotherhood Induction. The training topics and activities are new and revised this year so if you've been to a past LLD there's plenty new for you. Returning popular sessions with new twists are Understanding Your Leadership Styles Compass and The Lodge Simulator!

This LLD Weekend is also a Brotherhood Induction so all Ordeal Members who are Brotherhood eligible should consider sealing their membership by attending LLD and the Saturday

Pennacook Lodge to Help Scouting for Food, Nov 19

Troop 30 Watertown is gearing up for a giant Scouting for Food Drive and Pennacook Lodge will be there to help. Please join us on Saturday Nov 19 from 12N-4pm, in Watertown at 80 Mt. Auburn Street.

All Order of the Arrow members are welcome and needed for this important Day of Community Service. We will be helping Troop 30 receive carloads of food donated by local Scout parents and families, sorting groceries onsite and delivering all the food to the Watertown Food Pantry by 4 p.m. Troop 30 plans on receiving about 2.5 tons of food (their average haul from past years). This will be a huge effort, and Pennacook Lodge's extra hands working in Cheerful Service will greatly help.

All Arrowmembers welcome. Any questions or ideas, please email service@oapennacook.org.

Pennacook Recognizes Two with Vigil Honor

Pennacook Lodge recognized two Brotherhood Members with the Vigil Honor in 2022: David Penney Jr., (an Eagle Scout, past Lodge Treasurer, Elangomat, Nimat, and AOL Chair) and Jonathan Pleva, (adult leader and interim Scout Executive). Congratulations Brothers!
