2024 National Order of the Arrow Conference

July 28 – August 10, 2024

University of Colorado Boulder

What is NOAC?

The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) is the Order of the Arrow's premier national event with 6,000-8,000 Arrowmembers participating from throughout the BSA.

It is held every two years at a major university with conference program that includes innovative leadership development, program, fellowship, and inspirational shows.

The University of Colorado Boulder

The University of Colorado Boulder

“Old Main” in the late 19th century

Founded in 1876, at CU Boulder, undergraduate and graduate students put their knowledge to use in areas of study ranging from archaeological finds in the arctic to improving the classroom experience to working with NASA to conduct research in space. CU Boulder is a member of the prestigious Association of American Universities and is one of the most beautiful campuses in the nation.

Boulder, Colorado

Boulder (pop ~104,000) sits at the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, in northern Colorado. To the west, the trail-lined Flatirons are craggy rock formations overlooking the city.

Did you know?

2024 will be the 35th national conference and the first-ever at the University of Colorado Boulder (CU). This is the first NOAC west of Iowa since 1988!

NOAC

Weather

The average temperatures in Boulder in late July ranges from a low of 55F to a high of 80F

Experience University Residence Hall Life

Delegates and staff will be housed and fed in one of CU's several residence halls. These amazing facilities will be your home base for the week!
