Pennacook Lodge 2022 NOAC Delegation.

What is NOAC? The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) is the Order of the Arrow's premier national event with 8,000+ Arrowmembers participating from throughout the BSA. It is held every two years at a major university with conference program that includes innovative leadership development, program, fellowship, and inspirational shows.

Would you like to be one of Pennacook Lodge's official delegates to the National Conference? It's going to be awesome!

We have thirty youth delegate spots available, and sign-ups are going fast! Now only 9 spots left!

We are now only six months away from a huge nationwide Scouting event that you will not want to miss! The next National Order of the Arrow Conference will be held at University of Colorado in Boulder from July 28 to August 3, 2024. We will fly round trip Boston to Denver, but before flying home on August 10th, Pennacook Lodge will make several fun and engaging side trips in Colorado and New Mexico to check out some great sites, enjoy scout camping, and to experience our country like never before. Along our route we will camp and hike at Philmont Scout Ranch and the Rocky Mountain National Park, whitewater raft along Brown's Canyon in the Arkansas River, visit the Ute Native American Conservation Reserve, and camping at scout camps, including Meadow Mountain Ranch and McNeil Scout Ranch, and much more.
